Men of Action

1954

“Men of Action” was sponsored by the Weirton chapter of the West Virginia Society of Professional Engineers for the National Engineers week program and was shown on WSTV-TV Channel 9 in February of 1954. This 15-minute black & white motion picture highlights the engineers of Weirton Steel Co. along with engineering contributions of several other area businesses. The film was produced by the Publications and Publicity Department of Weirton Steel Company, directed and photographed by Ted Varner and William Davidson, and written and edited by Paul Harris. Included are scenes from Weirton, Weirton Steel Co., Wheeling Steel Co., Follansbee Steel Co., Colliers Steel Co., Steubenville Pottery, and Kusic-Haines Manufacturing Company on the Half Moon farm.
